

Priston Festival Equal Opportunities Policy

Priston Festival operates an equal opportunities approach with respect to:

- ⤴ the composition of the Trustees and Committee
- ⤴ volunteers
- ⤴ performers and speakers
- ⤴ traders
- ⤴ visitors to the Festival.

This aims to ensure that no person is unlawfully or unfairly treated less favourably or disadvantaged for reasons of religious belief, political opinion, sex, age, marital status, race, colour, ethnic origin, sexual orientation or disability.

If any person feels that they have been discriminated against in terms of their engagement or involvement with the Priston Festival they are entitled to pursue the matter with the Priston Festival Committee, who will treat any such complaint seriously.

Priston Festival will endeavour to ensure, as far as is practicable, that all the premises it uses have disabled access.

The Trustees and Committee of the Priston Festival have overall responsibility for the effective operation of this policy, which is included on the Festival website. However it is also the responsibility of volunteers and participants in the Festival to ensure that this policy is operated in practice.

This policy will be reviewed annually by the Priston Festival Committee.
